

Staying Safe in a Hurricane

Boardmaker

A hurricane can cause a lot of rain and wind.

Boardmaker

The rain may collect on the streets and even in houses. This is called a flood.

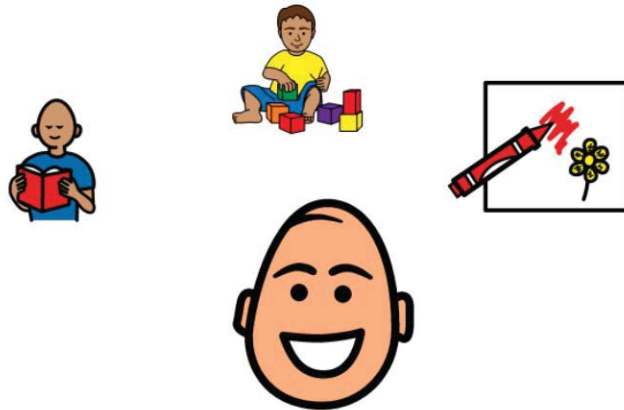

Boardmaker

Some people lose power during the hurricane. They may not have lights in their house or be able to watch TV.

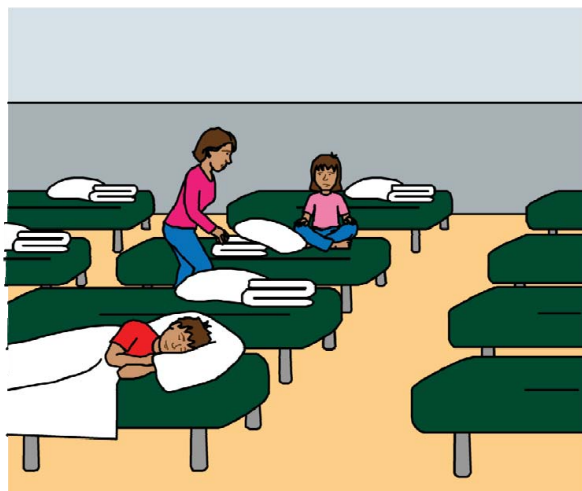

Boardmaker

If my house loses power, I can read, draw, or play with toys until the power comes back on.

Boardmaker

If there is rain in my house, I may need to go somewhere that is safe and dry.

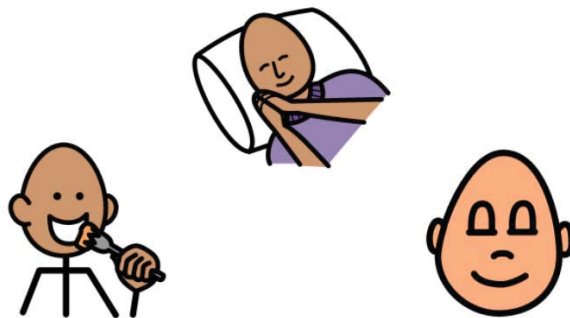

Boardmaker

I will stay in my house until an adult tells me it is safe to leave.

Boardmaker

I will be able to eat, sleep, and stay safe in the new place.

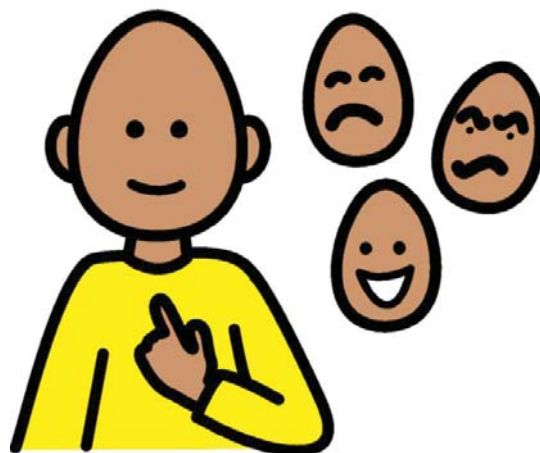

Boardmaker

I will follow adult directions to stay safe.

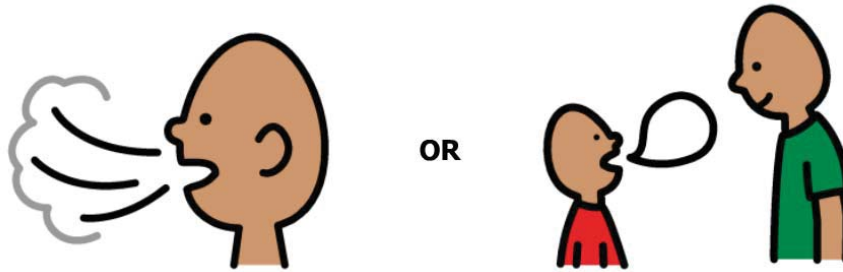

Boardmaker

It's ok to feel scared or sad during the flood.

Boardmaker

I can take deep breaths or talk to my family to feel better.

Boardmaker

I will stay in the new place until the water goes away, and it is safe to return home.

Boardmaker

Staying safe and being with my family is most important.
